This is the fourth one of the conference series on the Asian crisis in the late nineties. (For information about the previous three conferences held in Seattle and Tokyo, please visit <http://faculty.washington.edu/karyiu/>) Papers that analyze the causes and effects of the crisis, the recent recovery of these countries, and the economic relations between these countries and the rest of the world are most welcome. Papers for presentation can be either theoretical or empirical.

If interested, please send (preferably by e-mail) by February 10, 2002 a draft of your paper (or an extended abstract 300 – 500 words), together with your name, mailing and e-mail addresses, phone and fax numbers, affiliation and academic position to:

1. for people in Taiwan: Jeff Chien-Fu Lin, Department of Economics, National Taiwan University, 21 Hsu-Chow Road, Taipei, 100, Taiwan, R.O.C.
2. for people in other places: Kar-yiu Wong, Department of Economics, University of Washington, Seattle, WA 98195-3330, USA <karyiu@u.washington.edu>.

Final drafts of all papers accepted for presentation will be due on May 15, 2002. While participants are encouraged to find their own resources for traveling and accommodation, partial travel subsidies are available to a limited number of participants. If you want to apply for a subsidy, please state the amount requested and the lowest round-trip airfare between your city and Taipei, Taiwan.
